

“Men & Women in the Mission of Jesus”

Sermon Notes

- In the mission of Jesus, men and women stand equal in value and dignity yet different in role and responsibility

1. Jesus ordains men to _____ his kingdom mission (v.1; Luke 6:12-16; 9:1-6; 10:1-24; Ephesians 5:23; 1 Timothy 2:8-15; 1 Timothy 3:1-7; Titus 1:5-9)

So...

2. Jesus ordains women to _____ his kingdom mission (vv.2-3; Genesis 2:18, 20; Psalm 30:10; 46:1; 54:4; 71:24; 118:7; Psalm 121:1-2; Hosea 13:9; John 14:16, 26; 15:26; 16:7; Hebrews 13:6; Acts 18:24-28; Titus 2:3-5)

So...

Next Week: Luke 8:4-21 - “Take Care Then How You Hear”

MEFC Community Group Study Guide
For the Week of September 3rd – 9th

This week, we're going Swedish. For those who are not familiar, the following is a Bible study technique known as "The Swedish Method". It's simple, remarkably fruitful, and it will keep your personal or group study on track as you review the text from this Sunday's sermon in Luke 8:1-3. Try it out!

"What shines in this passage?"

"What stands out?"

"What is blindingly obvious that the author is getting across?"

"What questions do I have of this passage?"

"What confuses or baffles me?"

"What is unclear to me?"

"What is this passage telling me to think?"

"What is this passage telling me to feel?"

"How does this passage intend to change my mouth?"

"What is this passage telling me to do?"

"How does this passage speak to the work of Christ on the cross?"

"What does Jesus death for my sins have to say about this passage?"

"How does this passage reflect the truth of Christ's resurrection?"

"How does the fact that Jesus is the risen, ascended, reigning, and soon to return king of the universe affect this passage and how I apply it?"